This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (the Commission) on the request of Singleton Moving & Storage, Inc. (Singleton or the Company) for reinstatement of Class E (Household Goods) Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. 2398-A and on the request of the Office of Regulatory Staff (ORS) for delay of the Commission’s ruling on Singleton’s request. The record reveals that Class E Certificate No. 2398-A to transport household goods in South Carolina was granted to Singleton pursuant to Commission Order No. 83-599, dated October 6, 1983, and as amended by Order No. 84-1047, dated December 31, 1984.

On May 19, 2008, ORS filed a petition seeking revocation of the Certificates of Public Convenience and Necessity of certain motor carriers for failure of the certificated carriers to file annual reports as required by 26 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-231 (Supp. 2007). The record reflects that Singleton was listed in ORS' petition as a certificated carrier in non-compliance with the requirement to file annual reports. The Commission held a hearing on August 13, 2008, on the petition of ORS, and Singleton's certificate was among those that were found in non-compliance by the Commission and ultimately revoked by Order No. 2008-590 that resulted from this proceeding.

On September 4, 2008, Singleton filed a request with the Commission seeking reinstatement of the Company's Certificate. By letter filed on September 8, 2008, the ORS requests postponement of the Commission's ruling on Singleton's request for reinstatement in order to give ORS an opportunity to perform a compliance audit of the Company.

We have examined this matter and agree that holding Singleton's request over for a brief time so that the ORS can perform its audit for compliancy is in the public interest. The ORS should complete its investigation and make a recommendation concerning disposition of this matter as soon as possible, but no later than two (2) weeks from date of this Order.

This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further order of the Commission.
